

Internet Content Evaluation

- | | | |
|--|-----|----|
| 1. Can you tell who is the author? | YES | NO |
| 2. Conduct a link search. Is the author credible? | YES | NO |
| 3. Are you sure the information is true? | YES | NO |
| 4. Can you find another source to prove the information is true? | YES | NO |
| 5. Has the information been changed recently? | YES | NO |
| 6. Can you tell what organization(s) the author is connected with? | YES | NO |
| 7. Is the information presented from just one point of view? | YES | NO |
| 8. Does the author have credentials to prove his/her work is reliable? | YES | NO |
| 9. Is there a common link to the page from a recognized authority? | YES | NO |
| 10. Is there a bibliography? | YES | NO |
| 11. Does the site where the information is housed (the domain) influence your opinion about the validity of the information? | YES | NO |
| 12. Does the information appear biased? | YES | NO |
| 13. Is the material at a suitable reading level for the audience? | YES | NO |
| 14. Is evidence used to support the claims or conclusions of the author? | YES | NO |
| 15. Does a Google search lead you to believe that the author is an authority on the subject? | YES | NO |